Chapter 1: A Cold Morning

Toby is a small dog. He has soft brown fur and big eyes.

He walks down the street. It is cold.

Toby is hungry. He looks at the people.

Some people see him. Some people walk away.

Toby sits near a shop. He waits.

Chapter 2: The Girl

A girl comes out of the shop.

She sees Toby. She smiles.

“Hello, dog,” she says.

Toby wags his tail.

“You are alone,” she says.

She sits next to him.

“My name is Mia,” she says.

“You are cute.”

She looks at his neck.

“No collar,” she says.

She picks him up.

“Come with me,” she says.

Chapter 3: A Warm House

Mia's house is small. It is warm.

Her mother sees Toby.

“Who is this?” she asks.

“He is lost,” says Mia.

“Can he stay?”

Her mother looks at Toby.

Toby licks her hand.

She smiles. “One night,” she says.

Mia gives Toby food.

She makes a soft bed.
Toby sleeps. He is safe.

Chapter 4: The Posters

Mia and her mother make posters.
“Lost Dog,” they write.
They put the posters on walls.
They wait.
One day. Two days.
No one calls.
Mia is happy.
But she is also sad.
“Maybe he has no home,” she says.
Her mother nods.
“Maybe this is his home now.”

Chapter 5: A New Collar

Mia gives Toby a red collar.
It has a tag: “Toby – Mia’s Dog.”
Toby jumps. He barks.
He is happy.
They play in the garden.
They walk in the park.
People smile.
“What a nice dog!” they say.
Mia smiles too.
“He is my friend,” she says.

Chapter 6: Home

Weeks pass. Toby is strong.
He has food. He has toys.
He has love.
He is never alone.
One night, Mia hugs Toby.
“You are not lost,” she says.

“You are home.”

Toby wags his tail.

He barks, soft and sweet.

Yes, he is home.
